Celebrate the Season and Join Army-Navy Game Watch Party at National Army Museum

Seasonal Events Include VR Adventures and Holiday Shopping Specials

Fort Belvoir, Va. - The National Museum of the United States Army is celebrating the holiday season with a lineup of festive activities and store discounts throughout the month. The Museum will also host a free watch party for the Army-Navy Game on Saturday, December 14 at 3 p.m.

Visit the Museum's website for updates and secure your free admission tickets online. Free parking is also available.

December highlights include:

- Holiday Happenings – December 14 and 21, 2024 from 2-5 p.m.: Enjoy seasonal specials, festive treats, and holiday shopping at the Museum Cafe and Museum Store. Your purchases help support The Army Historical Foundation.
- Seasonal-Themed Simulators Experience: Experience a new seasonal experience at the Army Action Center in the simulated “Santa’s Christmas Rush,” racing to retrieve the lost packages in Santa’s jet-powered sleigh, or test your driving skills on the icy terrain of “Glacier’s Race.”. Available daily, November 28 – December 31.
- Army-Navy Game – Watch Party: Don’t miss the excitement as the Army Museum is hosting its annual Army–Navy Game Watch party beginning at 3:00 p.m. on December 14. Cheer on the Cadets from Westpoint as they face-off against the Midshipmen from the Naval Academy in this legendary rivalry.

The Museum is open every day of the year except December 25. Free, timed-entry tickets are preferred and available through the Museum's website at theNMUSA.org. The Museum Campus is open to the public and military gate access is not required.

About the National Museum of the United States Army

The National Museum of the United States Army provides the only comprehensive portrayal of Army history and traditions through the eyes of the American Soldier. By preserving, interpreting, and exhibiting invaluable artifacts, the National Army Museum creates learning opportunities for all visitors and bonds the American people to their oldest military service. We are America's Army Museum.

The U.S. Army owns and operates the Museum. The Army Historical Foundation continues its fundraising role in support of the Museum and manages all retail, catering and special events.

For more information on the National Museum of the United States Army visit www.theNMUSA.org.

About The Army Historical Foundation

The Army Historical Foundation establishes, assists, and promotes programs and projects that preserve the history of the American Soldier and promote public understanding of and appreciation for the contributions by all components of the U.S. Army and its members. The Foundation serves as the Army's official fundraising entity for the Capital Campaign for the National Museum of the United States Army. The award-winning, LEED- certified Museum opened on November 11, 2020, at Fort Belvoir, Va., and honors the service and sacrifice of all American Soldiers who have served since the Army's inception in 1775.
